Operation Homework is a nonprofit tutoring and mentor program for underserved youth, K-12th grade.

Smith's three children have participated in the program for the past several years. Smith attributes the academic improvement of all of her children to this program.

Cathy Smith wanted to do as much as she could to help this organization succeed, so she chose to fundraise. Thanks Cathy!

Human Race Update:

We are three weeks out and fundraisers have already raised $18,185.23!

We have raised $7,719 in online donations (34% of our total online goal!)

There are currently 102 nonprofits being supported through The Human Race. 17 Walking Teams have already committed.

Keep up the great work everyone!

FAQ's

Question: Does the online fundraising total include my offline donations?

Answer: No, your online fundraising page only tracks online donations. Nonprofit coordinators should track the total online and offline donations for their agency. If you have a question about your total, contact The Volunteer Center of Greensboro.

Question: How can I contact my online fundraisers?

Answer: Go to www.active.com/teams, login, and click view team roster to see fundraisers' names and email addresses.

IMPORTANT REMINDER...

The Gabriel Award nomination deadline has been extended to March 8th. Please return nomination forms to Aaron Hunt at The Volunteer Center ASAP!
